They played three songs with fervor, energy, and perfection. The crowd went wild at the end when Chris picked up his guitar and played his own rendition of "Everybody hurts sometime." Who would have thought that a guy known for slow songs could play a song that was high in intensity? Coldplay started their 30-minute show with "Sunrise" followed by "Viva la Vida." The highlight of "Viva La Vida" was when Chris used his guitar to help the sound wave of the hit song. The video played on a big screen TV screen in the background, but as soon as Chris started playing with his guitar, the instrumental track was silenced. They played "In My Place" and after that they added a portion of "Kites." The audience was very appreciative at this point when Chris said, "We'll be taking a break for
