INFEST YOUR FRIENDS! is a local 4 player local party game with 4 different challenging worlds and a bunch of gruesome enemies. The game is being built with the fun of having a conversation and the social factor of having a party in mind, so that players can share the experience and enrich their friendships.

NEON PARASITE IS SIMPLE TO PICK UP BUT DIFFICULT TO MASTER The game aims to offer a lot of depth in a short amount of time, so that everyone can enjoy the game even if they don't have great experience in games. The mechanics are simple but intricate, and the variety of enemies mean that even rookie players will enjoy the game.

SQUASH PUNY BUGS There are 4 types of enemies, each with their own set of abilities. Crunchy metallic insects make up the first wave. They contain 3 separate parts, one of which needs to be destroyed before the enemies can attack, and the whole stage will blow up if even one is destroyed. In the second wave, shining constructs with a propeller that rotates like a magnet attracts the metallic insects to them. Once they are attracted by the magnet and right next to the construct, they explode, turning themselves and the construct into splinters. If a part is destroyed, the construct will explode as well. There is one type of construct without a magnet, but it is still a bit tricky. Once a metallic insect is attracted, it will fly towards the construct and explode. The structure needs to be right next to them so that one explosion will cause the entirety to explode, but it is still difficult. The last wave has powerful enemies you can only see from far away. They have a motion sensitive laser beam which can be easily destroyed. Once they explode, their powers will corrupt nearby metallic insects. The game can be played even offline with bots on the battle areas, or when one player is their Soul playing in spectator mode. For the people who love LONGEVITY, there are 4 small hidden upgrades available by reflecting enough bullets to the host. Landing page isn't displaying correctly Thanks for the help, A: I found the issue! The reason this site was acting weird is because the application was hosted on Heroku and gave out SSL error messages. The page was working fine using the SSL over HTTPS http scheme. Q: Return type of static method in Java Let's say that I have a class like this: `class Sample { public static int foo(int a) { return a + 1; } }` If I were to call this method it would give me a compile time error because I don't specify any return type, but when I use a method like `method(int a)`, I assume that it will return the return type of the method (which here is `int`) and I will no longer receive any errors. My question is why is this the case? Is there any difference between `foo` and `method`? A: To put it simple, your second case doesn't compile because you are explicitly specifying `int` as the return type. Actually, with your first method, you are implicitly specifying a `void` return type. So it makes sense that compiler doesn't report error unless you explicitly specify that this must return a value. Q: Is it possible to control a sprite from elsewhere in `cocos2d-x`? So if I have 2 classes, subclassing `CCSpriteNode` and creating a

Create your own experience with a world of limitless possibilities. You can choose your color, pick your weapon, and decide how you want to progress. Experience a world that is alive, all around you, all the time. Use the C version of the game in the original release. (Thanks Super Game Boy) Posted 10/30/2011 5 out of 5 stars Great game I got this game to check out the reviews of a glitch of a game that called out my name and I'm glad I decided to check it out. I would highly recommend this to any person who has not played the game before. It is really awesome how challenging it gets as you go along. The only thing I wish it had was a little bit more music but that was nitpicky of me. It's a perfect little game for anyone with a wii and a system. I highly recommend this game to everyone. Posted 10/30/2011 5 out of 5 stars Great Deal This is a great game at a great price. I wanted to know more about the game after playing it but when I found out it would only cost about 30 bucks I just had to get it. Also the game is playable on the wii too. The only reason it gets two stars instead of five stars is that there isn't any music but it's still a great game. Posted 10/20/2011 5 out of 5 stars Wii U Game of the Year This is a fantastic game with a great storyline. The game presents the player with a full world to explore and discover. The game is addicting and challenging and, unlike other Mario-games, you can never save your progress. I'd even recommend this game to older audiences because the story and gameplay are enough to make the game fun for everyone. The game play is very smooth and the soundtrack is awesome. You won't regret buying this game. Posted 08/30/2011 5 out of 5 stars Awesome game I wish this game was released on the Wii U. This game is very simple, but very addicting. You can play this in Single-Player mode, or you can combine with other players in the community and get 4 player co-op. This game allows you to customize the character with different outfits, weapons, and save your game as soon as you die. I would recommend this game to all ages. Posted 07 c9d1549cdd out of 5Amazon.com Comments: U5 is unique in that it has a real world setting and system. This is accomplished by dividing the game in two. The first part is a specialized Sci-Fi RPG with a modified or converted version of the Fantasy Grounds rules. The second is in 5E standard fantasy settings. You begin the game as a character in a modern setting who has the power of the universe. A series of classes in five books advance you through life. U5 also introduces classes, archetypes, lifepaths, and a game system. Both systems and classes are relevant to a modern setting and RPG.

Special: A Crystal Cap Named for its Power! Super BOO Quest Special: A Crystal Cap Named for its Power! by Max Gray Eco Bucket Cd that is 10% less energy intensive than other Eco Bucket Cds Our favorite Epic Quest: If you got this far, things are going well! It's time to talk about our next quest. If this is new to you, then you may be interested in knowing that we're going to be keeping track of and posting info on quests every so often with updates and what-not. There are 4 quests we'll be working on so far (for more info on the first one and what it's supposed to look like check below): 3 Other Minibucket designs that are semi-satisfying, and one fully satisfying quest. We'll be doing these quests in order (starting with the previous one we posted before this one). We're hoping that by the time of release we'll have something special new and exciting for all of you (along with very healthy cash rewards). Also, for those of you that are interested in joining us, we're going to give out 3 special Facebook codes every day when the EpicQuest Birthday celebration starts. All you have to do is "Like" our Facebook page, visit EpicQuest app, and click on the associated article. So if you're anything like us, you're anxious to know where we're at with quest 4. The first quest should lead the way (posting the picture), and the second one should be detailed here on this page. I hope to post pics and info on this video for you all to appreciate and enjoy! This first video will just be a quick rundown of some new features, gameplay, and what our quests are all about. Description: All types of colors and sizes of Minibuckets to be made. Cut-outs for the different types to be designed and built. Craft Items: All types of fashion accessory that can include pet collars, custom harnesses, earrings, key chains, etc. Lil Buckets will also be created. We're hoping this quest will be fully satisfying to all of you. Reminder: We'll be taking our first group of participants beginning on May 1st and running till June 15

For the pioneer age, when the North became the forge of technology, when the voice and thought of the Northerners became sharper, the famous and well-respected Vyborg Steelworks was founded. The development of technology is possible thanks to the strength of the Northerners, their ingenuity, and talent. The city itself turned into a steel mill city. And in Vyborg Steelworks you enter a different world, where nobody stands in your way and there is no shortage of new challenges. You can choose from among more than 15 different jobs, have the possibility to rise through the ranks, and earn the important bonuses. Features: 15 new jobs for players Completely new storyline Custom tailored for each job: 10 completely new buildings New technologies New buildings give you more than one bonus. For example, you get bonus income for the new buildings or new technologies or to develop new technologies. New buildings and technologies increase income and bonuses Each bonus can be earned by developing a new technology or installing a new building. Building construction is often based on the job you are currently doing If you are not too experienced in building construction, it is best to choose the easiest jobs or to focus on your most experienced jobs Customized for each job: You can research more than one technology for a job The order in which you develop technologies changes based on the job. First use the technologies that earn you the most bonus Inventories, storage or production can be based on your job You can develop technologies from your inventories, existing warehouses or production processes The value of your shops In some jobs, you have a shop in which you can use your own units. It is also worth to develop your technology here, because your inventory and your technology are added to your bonus. A new technology that will make you more effective A new technology does not guarantee a better performance of your factories, but will grant you some important bonuses. A more efficient production of the next level With the help of technologies, you get faster production of your factory in the same way. You can always use your production to improve the efficiency of your factory. Upgrade technologies, which means faster production of the next level Each year, you have to spend more money on your factory. This is what new technologies will do for you. Products of your factory By using the products from your factory, you can also earn valuable bonuses. Dwarf, Northern and general Production bonuses The
