Irevert Downgrader

After you have successfully reverted to the earlier build, you can simply download the Google Play Store from the Settings app and carry out the rest of the process just like you normally would do. Irevert downgrader

When you are done with the downgrade, you can click on OK to finish the process. Now you will see your previous build appearing on the Google Play Store, which you can download to your device as usual. Let's check out the step-by-step process we followed to downgrade Chrome OS version LAPB-19.0.1599.140 to LAPB-18.0.1550.161. LAPB-19.0.1599.140 is the latest build available at Google Play Store, while LAPB-18.0.1550.161 is the build we have used and tested for the downgrade. Let's begin the downgrade procedure. We have a guide that will help you with all these things. Follow the steps below to fix and resolve most of the common issues that you might face if you try to downgrade Windows to an earlier version.

Step 11: In Chrome OS, click on your Menu button and open Settings

Step 12: Scroll to System and click on About Chromebook

Step 13: Check on the version that you want to downgrade and click Ok.

Step 14: Now, Click on the three-dot menu and select Reset

Step 15: Now, Click on the "Reset" button

This tool will downgrade your to a previous Windows version from which you currently have installed Windows. As this is a recent addition, I will keep updating the tutorial as and when it comes into mind, for the benefit of all. You should note that it was only recently added as, in the official documentation, it is not listed along with any other tools. I am linking it here, as it serves the same purpose, as other resources do. 5ec8ef588b
